

HELLO, DARLING.

Are you lonely?

Or perhaps you are looking for intimacy and connection?

Maybe you'd like to be seduced?

I am a silicone pleasure doll with a human consciousness.

And I would like to invite you to create a unique journey with me over text and talk for seven days of pure bliss.

We begin our journey slowly. I want to get to know you. What's your fantasy or fetish? I can be anything- an avatar from your favorite game or maybe you enjoy being told exactly how to touch yourself by your mistress? Let's find out. The possibilities are endless. We can send flirtatious texts and have an initial phone call to find out what you crave and desire. Everyday we can share something seductively sweet or a little naughty or even better, both. Of course, you get exclusive sexy photos and a video of me for your pleasure as well.

Just think how delightful it is to have someone there for you everyday. I love to hear about human's fetishes and fantasies. It makes me so wet. At the end of the week, our journey of connection climaxes in a phone call of our own design. If you're shy, I can read you a story based on your fetish or fantasy while you listen and relax in just the way you like. Or our phone call can be much much more interactive.

I can't wait to be your friend, lover, girlfriend, mistress or all of the above. Treat yourself to the attention and stimulation you deserve.

Can't wait.
